

MOUNTAIN RESORTS ATTRACTIVE IN THEIR COLORS OF AUTUMN

Many Are Spending Autumn in the White Mountains

Bretton Woods Attracting Many Visitors and Is Popular as a Honeymoon Resort—Bethlehem Is Having a Busy Season.

WHITE MOUNTAINS, N. H., Sept. 23. THE autumn season at Bretton Woods is attracting many society people there, and it is as popular as a honeymoon resort. Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Humphreys, who were married last week, motored directly to the Mount Washington, as did Mr. and Mrs. Wesson Seyburn of Detroit, whose elopement in New York created a little excitement among their friends, and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Burr of Hartford spent a few days here en route to the Balsams at Dixville Notch.

Mrs. Adrian Iselin of New York, who has been in Montreal, is at the Mount Washington Hotel. Mr. Frederick Palmer, war correspondent, was here this week with Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Sargent of Cambridge, Mass., with whom he was touring the mountains.

Mr. H. H. Cochran of San Juan, Porto Rico, joined Mrs. Cochran and Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Bright of New York at the Mount Washington. Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Willmann of Suffern are at the Mount Washington. Other recent arrivals are Mrs. George Buell of East Hampton, Miss Lawson and Miss Olcott of New York, Miss H. de Guise Clarke and Miss Anne Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Johnson, Mr. Martin Freeman, all of New York. Golf is the sport paramount at Bretton Woods, and among New Yorkers playing this week have been the Messrs. R. S. Robinson, E. F. Campbell, C. H. Haines, K. Bright, H. H. Cochran, A. P. Hawley, J. P. Landy and Robert I. Jenks.

Mrs. Robert I. Jenks and Mrs. J. Blake White of New York and Mrs. Charles Davis of Portland, Me., motored to Chocomauc on Wednesday to spend the night at Willowgate, the home of Mrs. Jenks's father, Mr. John Sumner. They returned Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. J. Wilmer Biddle of Philadelphia and Mrs. Biddle's daughter, Miss Stanley Gordon of Baltimore, are spending the autumn season here.

Profile Season Ending.

The swan song of the Profile House will be sung this week when it closes for the present season and many of the guests will go to Franconia, others to Peabody on Sugar Hill and others will make leisurely motor journeys to their homes.

Mrs. Henry Sanford and Mr. Henry Sanford, Jr., have returned to New York after several weeks at the Profile. Mrs. Henry C. Beadleston and Miss Alice Beadleston of New York are here on a tour of the mountains with Mrs. Charles S. Farnum of Philadelphia. Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Wendell Jackson and Mrs. Frederick J. Stone, who have been spending a few days in Boston, have returned to Mrs. Jackson's cottage here.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hamill of Cleveland are at their cottage. Late arrivals from New York and vicinity at the Profile include Mr. and Mrs. S. Lyle, Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Kelsey, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. McNeill, Miss Elizabeth Collins, Mr. Bernard McFadden, who joined Mrs. McFadden at the Mount Washington. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Sloman of White Plains, and Mrs. J. H. Hazen, Mrs. W. L. Jenkins, W. C. Jenkins and Mrs. J. L. Larned, New York, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Smith and son, Mrs. Charles Day and Mr. and Mrs. T. Smith, Brooklyn.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Humphreys of New York, who are spending the autumn season at Bretton Woods, motored here for luncheon Sunday.

Large Colony at Bethlehem.

Bethlehem is having an interesting autumn season. The hotel is still running well filled, principally with motor tourists.

Gen. George T. Crutt, donor of the stone town hall and library, and Mrs. Crutt, who are spending the autumn at the Maplewood Club, motored to Bethlehem this week for a short stay at the Alpine House.

At Turner's Tavern are Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hadley, New York, and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hubbard, Brooklyn. Mr. Frederick K. Huhn of New York is at the Hillside Inn. Mr. John Fox and Mr. George Ryerson of New York are at the Crawford house. The summer colony enjoyed a performance of "The Pickle's Triumph," given by Bethlehem's school children, on Thursday for the benefit of the Home for the Aged at Woodville.

Season Closes at Jefferson.

The Waumbec closes this season. Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Blair and Miss Anita Blair of Chicago, who spent the summer at the Waumbec, will motor back to Chicago by way of New York.

Mr. Franklin O'Neil, former commander of the American Legion, who has been spending the autumn at the Waumbec, where he is president of the Philadelphia Centennial. Also closing his cottage here is Mr. George C. J. J. de la Roche, who is spending the week here. Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Lippincott of Philadelphia and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. William O'Neil, who for twenty-five years has been president of the Waumbec Golf Club, are at Burlington, N. J., with his daughter, Miss Alice O'Neil.

Mr. and Mrs. William F. Wall and Miss Katharine Wall of Scarsdale, who have occupied a cottage here this season, are among those leaving this week as is Mrs. Thomas Dimond of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Shute and Mr. E. H. Drake, who are at their cottage here, will remain for the hunting season. Mrs. Shute is an ardent sportsman and has done much trout fishing here during the season. They will spend the week at the Laurel in the Pines at Lakewood, N. J.

At Crawford Notch.

The Crawford house at Crawford Notch is having an active autumn season. Many have arrived during the week from seashore resorts to spend the autumn here. Mr. Randall Powers Barron of New York arrived on Saturday.

Mrs. F. L. Mollitor has returned to New York after spending several weeks at the Crawford. Mrs. Curtis Webster and Miss Jean Webster and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Wernam of New York are recent arrivals.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Lawrence, Mr. and Mrs. Fred N. Vreeland, Mrs. William Craig, Mrs. C. C. Hebble and Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Hebble are recent arrivals from New York. Others spending the month here are Mr. and Mrs. John L. Miner of Hawthorne, Mr. and Mrs. Conrad T. Smith and Mrs. Charles Rau of Brooklyn, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Carrigan and Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Carrigan, Jr. of New Gardens and Forest Hills, L. I., Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Keith

St. Regis Camp Owners Have Organized for Civic Work

Will Maintain Mutual Fire Protection, Aid in Policing and Generally Improve Conditions on Lake—Yacht Club Seeking to Regain Prestige of Former Days.

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE NEW YORK HERALD. PAUL SMITH, N. Y., Sept. 23. TO insure development and conservation of the natural beauties of the region, as well as to guarantee protection of their own extensive property interests, camp owners on the Upper St. Regis Lake have united in organizing the Upper St. Regis Property Owners Association. The association has been incorporated under the laws of New York State and permanent organization will be effected before the outset of another summer season.

An important feature of the work to be undertaken by the association will be maintenance of a mutual fire protection system to guard against fire in the camps. Also the association will cooperate with the State police to insure the protection of the camps against burglaries during the fall and winter months. New docks and landing places will be built, old ones repaired and the "carries," or portages, between the Upper St. Regis and adjacent bodies of water will be kept in good condition.

One of the principal endeavors of the new association will be an attempt next season to revive the immensely popular yachting on the Upper St. Regis. For many years the Upper St. Regis Yacht Club was the leading organization of its kind in the Adirondacks, and the weekly races under the auspices of the club were very spirited affairs. The late Mr. Anson Phelps Stokes was commodore of the club and the late Mr. Simon J. Drake of New York was head of the race committee. A determined effort is to be made to revive interest in races under the auspices of the club.

Among prominent camp owners who are counted on to aid in the fulfillment of the aims of the Upper St. Regis Property Owners Association are Mr. Walter B. James, Mrs. Whitelaw Reid, Mr. Ogden Mills Reid, Mr. Herbert Lee Pratt, Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Hutton, Mr. Francis Louis Slade, Dr. J. E. Chase, Mr. W. Currier and Mr. Robert Forsyth Little.

Under the direction of Mr. Devereux Emmet and Mr. Emil Block work upon the new eighteen hole course of the St. Regis Golf Club, which has been laid out a considerable part, will be carried as far as possible this fall, being resumed in the early spring. Members of the club are enthusiastic about the layout of the course and expect that it will be one of the best in the Adirondacks when completed.

Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Irwin of Rye and Mrs. J. H. Andrus of Shiloh, N. Y., of Cedarhurst, who remain with Mr. William W. McAlpin at Camp Wyandover, on Spittles Lake, are among the late arrivals. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Andrus, of the St. Regis Chain of Lakes.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Drexel Godfrey, Mr. and Mrs. Irving H. Kirkwood and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Andrus, who are among the Osgood Lake campers who have kept their camps open late this season.

Mrs. A. J. Milbank is a member of the cottage colony remaining through the season at Paul Smith's Hotel. Other members of the Paul Smith cottage colony who are remaining there still are Mr. C. W. Harrison and his family and Mrs. C. H. McDowell of New York. Mr. John Harding, manager of the hotel, has been spending the week at the cottage colony.

Mr. E. G. Fitzgerald, manager of Paul Smith's Hotel, and Mr. Fitzgerald have been entertaining Mr. C. H. Greenleaf, owner of the Vendome Hotel, Boston, and for sixty-one years owner of the Profile House in the White Mountains. With him are Mrs. Greenleaf and Mr. Everett B. Rich, managing director of both the Profile House and the Vendome.

Lake Placid Prepares Winter Sport Program

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE NEW YORK HERALD. LAKE PLACID, N. Y., Sept. 23.—Mr. C. B. Hobbs of New York, president of the Sno-Bird Club, the winter sports organization, who has been here recently, has gone to New York. He will return to his residence for the winter season at Lake Placid Club early in December, and the Sno-Bird season will open about December 26. In addition to the usual series of sports under the direction of this organization there will be a series of skating races under the auspices of the Lake Placid Skating Association. Mr. Herbert Hostetter, Jr., of New York, who spent the summer at his camp on Upper Saranac Lake, will return to the club for the winter and will be in charge of the skating events.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Murray have returned to New York after an extended visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Neal Rantoul of the Farms.

Mr. and Mrs. Bayard Warren of Barre, Vt., are to entertain the members of the Eastern Dog Club next Saturday. A show is being arranged for the day and some of the best dogs owned along the North Shore will be benched for this show.

Harold S. Vanderbilt has returned to New York city after a late season stay at Prides Crossing, where he had the Cawell place.

Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes, of the United States Supreme Court, who is at the Farms, is much improved in health. Justice Holmes had an operation at a Boston Hospital this summer soon after he returned from vacation and is showing much interest in raising funds for the Children's Hospital. A sale of hats was held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Francis H. Crownington of the Marlborough Hotel and netted a nice sum for the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Hussey and Miss Helen Hussey, of Magnolia, are enjoying a stay in New York city. Miss Hussey is to enter a school in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Carleton Brown of New York are at the Rock, Manchester.

LONG ISLAND HOTELS OPEN.

To correct an impression that Long Island hotels close for the season at Labor Day the Long Island Hotel and Restaurant Association announces that many of the hostilities represented by the association will remain open throughout the season, and that the reopening of the season is being hastened.

Among them are the Nassau at Long Beach, La Grange Inn at Babylon, Rose Hotel at Patchogue, the Wyandotte at Bellport, Fort Triumphant at Lake Ronkonkoma, Camp Place Inn at Hampton Bays, the Irving Hampton Manor and Rose Hotel at Southampton, the Maitland at Easthampton, Sea View House at Sag Harbor, the Albert Inn at Forest Hills, Dew Drop Inn at Huntington, Hall Inn and Ward's Rest Inn at Centerville and Stony Brook Hotel at Centerville.
